

KEN PORRELLO
Executive Director
CEO Perspectives

Ken Porrello is the Executive Director of CEO Perspectives, a leadership program offered to top executives of major corporations through a partnership among Corporate Leadership Center, Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University and University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

Prior to joining CEO Perspectives, Ken was a senior principal with Deloitte. At Deloitte, Ken led significant client transformation assignments across a variety of industry sectors, including financial services and the public sector. Ken has held a variety of leadership roles in Deloitte, including Regional Managing Director for Consulting operations in the Midwest, North American Managing Director for Financial Services Consulting, and head of Strategy and Operations Consulting in India. Ken served as National Managing Director for Partner Development and organized and led leadership development programs for senior client executives.

Ken serves as chair of the Board of Advisors for the McCormick School of Engineering at Northwestern University and is a graduate of McCormick and of the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.

The Practice of Leadership